CAFE & CHAAT HOUSE

જ્યોતિર્ભૂત તત્ત્વ જાતિભૂત

Gujarat is the land of Lord Krishna & Mahatma Gandhi and is situated on the Western Coast of India.

Gujarat gets its name from "Gujjar Rasthra", the land of the Gujjars, a migrant tribe who came to India in the wake of invading huns in the 5th Century.

The history of Gujarat dates back to 2000 BC.

Gujarat is the only vegetarian state in India. Majority of Gujaratis are vegetarians. Geographically Gujarat can be divided into four regions North Gujarat, Kathiyawad, Kutch and South Gujarat. There are slight variations in eating habits & modes of preparation, because of the climate & cultural differences.

Certain ingredients like yoghurt, buttermilk, coconut, sesame seeds, lime juice, sugar jaggary etc. are very common in Gujarati food.

Gujarati cuisine is unlike any other Indian Cuisine. It is traditionally served on silver platters to the accompaniment of rice and a variety of wheat breads. There are hardly a few people who do not relish Gujarati savouries such as crisp spicy fried farshans, which can be bought in wayside stalls.

The famous Gujarati Thali served at wedding consists of farshan, sweetmeats & a variety of
